COMMENTS: The candidate has addressed content in a rather flimsy way - rather than discussing more serious conceptual concerns the candidate has, instead, glossed over a few basic points. Organisation is limited, with paragraphs having only one or two sentences. Punctuation within sentences is also lacking. A more concerted attempt to craft a coherent whole is necessary for the higher bands. Accuracy is in need of attention - meaning is not always easy to decipher. Good luck in the exam!

Range of language and accuracy are promising. The candidate shows a lot of promise. Good luck in the exam!
